

Thomas M. Williams

Areas of Practice

Insurance Coverage Law
Construction Defect Law

Education

William & Mary School of Law I
(J.D., 2011)
William & Mary Law Review
University of Washington
(B.A. in Philosophy with a Minor in Law, Society & Justice, 2007)
Cum Laude

Admitted to Practice

Washington State Courts (2014)
Hawaii State Courts (2011)
United States District Court,
Western District of Washington
(2016)

Thomas represents contractors, developers, homeowners, associations, businesses and other commercial policyholders in insurance coverage, construction defect, and complex commercial litigation.

With an emphasis on policyholder insurance coverage litigation, Thomas represents policyholders to navigate and complete a wide variety of legal tasks including, but not limited to, establishing and obtaining coverage, issuing notice of loss to insurers and subcontractors, tendering claims, negotiating settlements, identifying and analyzing coverage issues, preparing claims and proofs of loss, and bringing actions against insurers for breach of contract and bad faith. Thomas works with policyholders to determine and meet their goals by building unique strategies and approaches when considering the particular facts of each individual matter.

In addition to coverage litigation, Thomas also represents business owners, contractors and developers in complex commercial litigation, including real estate development, construction defect, environmental issues, and business disputes

Areas of Practice

Insurance Coverage Law
Construction Defect Law

Education

William & Mary School of Law (J.D., 2011)
William & Mary Law Review
University of Washington (B.A. in Philosophy with a Minor in Law, Society & Justice, 2007)
Cum Laude

Admitted to Practice

Washington State Courts (2014)
Hawaii State Courts (2011)
United States District Court, Western District of Washington (2016)

Professional Activities

Washington State Bar Association